MARKET CONDITIONS.
Apples—Receipts about equal to demand for good quality. Poor quality demand slow. Pears—Receipts light, demand good. Bartleits and Seckels, equal demand. Peaches—Receipts heavy, demand only fair, prices low. Only good quality wanted. Plums—Fair demand for good quality. Grapes—Receipts heavy, demand fair on good quality. Poor quality. Poor quality not wanted. Onlons—Receipts moderate; demand good at top prices.—Receipts light, demand good at top prices.—General conditions—Receipts of all goods have been a little heavy, therefore demand not up to standard, and prices a little low. Cool weather creates better demand for all farm products. We look for better business.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, August 28—Lowest values for the crop were registered by wheat at the opening to-day. There was a temporary rally on covering of shorts, but offerings became freer, and the market declined again, closing irregular, \(\) ic lower to \(\) 4c higher at \(97\) 4c for September and \(95\) 3c for December. [Special to The Times Disputch.] CHICAGO, August 28 .- The professionals in the wheat market at Chicago are "at sea." They were forced to cover their outstanding September contracts early to-day, and this buy-ing caused price gains of as much as I cent, but with this demand supplied the offerings seemed to decrease, and buyers, instead of taking hold on the buyers, instead of taking hold on the weak spots, refused to absorb the offerings, and setbacks of 1 1-8 to 1 3-5 were established. Closing prices for the day were 1-4c, lower to 1-8 a 1-4c, higher. Cash transactions were small at 110,000. In fact, the market was flat, not only here, but at other points in the West as well as at the Seaboard. Of the above sales, 80,000 bushels were for export. The wheat market is largely oversold at Chicago, and it would be no surprise to see many of the shorts cover in order to secure profits as well as to even up secure profits as well as to even up their accounts.

Some of the larger speculators the Chicago wheat market as well as nearly all of the smaller ones favored the bear side of the market. A. Patten is one of these, as well as John Barrett and many of the lesser John Barrett and many of the lesser lights in the trade.

There are only a few bulls to be found and they feel that prices are likely to react and advance from the lowest levels merely because shorts want to take profits and in order to change their paper profits to real money they will be obliged to cover their outstanding shorts.

Corn closed at 1-8 to 3-8c, higher on predictions of unsettled weather, with frost in some portions of the Northern belt. The early strength in wheat helped corn somewhat during the morning, but it failed to hold at best prices.

RICHMOND DISCOVERS

The News Has Gone Forth to the World That There is Something Doing Down Here in Richmond Town.

The following from the Lynchburg Advance is at least worth the reading: "Richmond men have at last discovered that there is such a section as Tidewater Virginia north of the York River, and Richmond is all agog over the prospect of having a railroad running from Richmond into that country. The Richmond newspapers call the counties discovered the Baltimore countries, and there is every prospect of a trade war between Richmond and Baltimore for the possession of the trade of that section. The plans for the railroad have been almost completed, a mere matter of money being the only thing lacking, we believe, and things are going on with a whoop.

"We would advise Richmond in this regard that there is danger in her project. Baltimore may be long-suffering and of great patience, but there is a limit to all things. And there is a limit to the extent to which peaceful looting may be carried. Baltimore is a right game loser, but there is a point beyond which gameness and patience and good humor must be left.

THE THUMBER STREET

which gameness and patience and good humor must be left.
"In the first place, Richmond took away the Federal reserve bank from Baltimore after Baltimore had proved to herself that the bank belonged within her borders. In fact, so sure was Baltimore that the bank belonged to her, that she took the matter before the reserve board. Richmond has the bank. Then came the matter of the Baltimore baseball team, and Baltimore suddenly discovered that instead of being a tailender in a league she was not in the league at all. Maybe Baltimore didn't mind the losing of the baseball team,

There was little change in the market for hog products, but the list cased off under selling by September longs.

Two Features on Curb.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEW YORK, August 28.—Electric Boat, new stock, and Kennecott Copper were again the features of the curb market to-day, both as regards strength and activity. The balance of the list was only farly active. New high-price records were scored in the former issues. In the instance of Electric Roat, the election of Charles M. Schwab to the directorate was the reason for the sharp overnight advance and the stock sold at 55 and 56 on both sides of the crowd at the opening. The greatest interest was centered again in the specialties and while the dealings were about on a level with those of yesterday, prices held about steady. Minings where showed further improvement as to price, but the dealings were about on a level with those of yesterday, prices held about steady.
